Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, May 12

(from old vines planted to clone 7; harvested last at To Kalon in 2010): Deep ruby. Penetrating aromas of blueberry, candied violet and minerals. Dense and silky on the palate, with enticing floral lift to the flavors of raspberry and milk chocolate. In spite of the late harvest, this wine gives the impression of a lower pH than the other two Carter cuvees from To Kalon. Finishes with superb, chocolatey, palate-staining length and big, fully ripe tannins that reach the incisors. This looks to be the best set of releases to date from Carter Cellars. 93-96 points
