Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, May/June 10

($65; includes 5% petit verdot) Good deep ruby-red. Aromas of blackberry, blueberry, minerals and white pepper, with a suggestion of hard candy. Silky on entry, then suave and cool in the middle, with flavors of black fruits and bitter chocolate. Finishes with a very firm tannic structure and subtle power. Carter told me he uses the petit verdot to add color and to round out the atypically powerful Truchard merlot. 90(+?) points
