The 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Fortuna Vineyard shares an equally opaque purple color. The wine has intense cassis fruit, but not the complexity of its two predecessors, but the fruit character is super-rich, deep, ripe and persistent. This is a blockbuster in terms of fruit extract, but has yet to show the nuances that some of its siblings possessed. Nevertheless, it's hard to resist given its suppleness, opulence and gorgeous purity and fruit. Drink it over the next 15 or more years.
